

I am strongly opposed to the challenge by the CBA to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. If their exemption is granted their intrusive telephone soliciting would, once again, become an intolerable invasion. I pay monthly telephone up-charges (privacy manger, caller ID) as it is in order to screen out telephone solicitors & protect my privacy. Granting their challenge would be a step backward. Please do not allow this to happen. Thank You! Sincerely, Debby Mercier